COURSE LENGTH: 0.5 DAYS

In the new global economy, it is more important than ever to understand how cultural differences affect communication and perception in the workplace. Improving intercultural communication enhances an organisation's success by bringing together varied perspectives and implementing fresh ideas in the organisation.

In this fascinating Managing Workplace Diversity training course you'll be exposed to a number of key skills including understanding how biases and stereotypes affect our judgment, identifying personal baggage that can affect opinions, ways to discourage discrimination, cultural body language, dealing with complaints and choosing a course of action to be taken and much more!

This fun, high-energy professional development training course is available in Brisbane, Sydney, Melbourne, Canberra, Adelaide, Parramatta and Perth.

MANAGING WORKPLACE DIVERSITY TRAINING - ONLINE INSTRUCTOR-LED 3HOURS COURSE OUTLINE

FOREWORD

As the world gets smaller, the workforce becomes more mobile and outsourcing becomes more common. The need to understand diversity and to be able to include cultural diversity as part of the work-place culture is becoming increasingly important.

In Australia, we celebrate our cultural diversity as a country and many organisations are multi-cultural by design. However this diversity can bring with it a series of issues that need to be highlighted and understood, so this course was designed to help organisations create a positive cultural awareness and policy.
