READING BODY LANGUAGE SALES TRAINING COURSE OUTLINE

FOREWORD

Do you want to know what your client's body language is telling you? Are you aware of what your body language is communicating to others? Body language is a universal medium of non-verbal communication and aids in reinforcing and adding credibility to what you are saying. Reading non-verbal signals can be even more important when selling in cross-cultural situations. You'll learn the essential concepts of understanding body language by attending the Reading Body Language Sales training course from PD Training.

During the course, participants learn to understand the nuances of body language so that they can read it expertly, and also how to alter their own body language to create a specific impact on others. This comprehensive course includes knowledge and skill development in improving communication, understanding gestures, decoding personality types and quickly building rapport.

The Reading Body Language Sales Training Course provides participants with all the necessary tools to understand their own and others' unconscious body expressions to gain an insight into their behavior and personality.
